April 13, 2020

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR
CITY AND COUNTY OF HONOLULU
EMERGENCY ORDER NO. 2020-06
(COVID-19 [Novel Coronavirus])

FABRIC STORES

By the authority vested in me as Mayor of the City and County of Honolulu (the "City") pursuant to Revised Charter of the City and County of Honolulu 1973 (2017 Edition), as amended; the Revised Ordinances of the City and County of Honolulu 1990, as amended; the Hawai'i Revised Statutes, as amended ("Haw. Rev. Stat."); the Constitution; and laws of the State of Hawai'i, I, KIRK W. CALDWELL, hereby issue this order (the "Order") to address the emergency declared in the Proclamation COVID-19 [Novel Coronavirus] that I issued on March 4, 2020, and Supplemental Proclamation of Emergency or Disaster (COVID-19 [Novel Coronavirus]) that I issued on March 18, 2020.

Pursuant to Haw. Rev. Stat. § 127A-25 and the Rules of the Mayor City and County of Honolulu, dated March 20, 2020 ("Mayor's Rules") promulgated under that section, this Order shall have the force and effect of law. The Order is in accordance with and incorporates by reference the Proclamation COVID-19 [Novel Coronavirus] that I issued on March 4, 2020; the Supplemental Proclamation of Emergency or Disaster (COVID-19 [Novel Coronavirus]) that I issued on March 18, 2020; the Emergency Order No. 2020-02 (Covid-19 [Novel Coronavirus]) Stay At Home / Work From Home Order that I issued on March 22, 2020, as supplemented ("Stay at Home Order"); Hawai'i Governor David Y. Ige's Proclamation dated March 4, 2020 (as supplemented); and the Order for Self-Quarantine dated March 21, 2020, issued by the Hawai`i Emergency Management Agency.

This Order is effective at 4:30 p.m. on April 13, 2020, and will continue through 4:30 p.m. on Thursday April 30, 2020, under the terms and conditions more particularly set forth below.

Violation of the Order is punishable as a misdemeanor, with fines of up to $5,000, up to a year in jail, or both. Haw. Rev. Stat. § 127A-29; Mayor's Rules.

I. ORDER

Consistent with the Stay at Home Order, and in furtherance of my recommendation for residents of the City and County of Honolulu to wear masks in public and to support local production of masks, fabric sellers and suppliers are an "Essential Business" as defined in Section II in the Stay at Home Order under the following conditions:

A. The business is primarily engaged in selling fabric and related supplies ("Fabric Store(s)";

B. Only two customers are allowed in the Fabric Store at a time, and the Fabric Store has implemented effective procedures to prevent any line from forming outside (appointment-only system, etc.);

C. All orders from the Fabric Store, other than those to be made in person pursuant to section I.B. (above), are facilitated exclusively online, or by other remote means;

D. Orders from the Fabric Store, other than those to be made in person pursuant to section I.B. (above), are fulfilled by no-contact delivery; a business providing mailing and shipping and delivery services to residences and end users or through commercial channels; or by curbside pick-up consistent with Social Distancing Requirements (as defined in the Stay at Home Order) to the extent possible;

E. In-person and pick-up orders from the Fabric Store are solely for the purpose of obtaining materials necessary to make masks; and

F. The physical presence of workers at the Fabric Store is limited to the greatest extent feasible, and such workers must comply with Social Distancing Requirements (as defined in the Stay at Home Order) to the extent possible.

II. GENERAL

A. Supplementing Order. The Office of the Mayor City and County of Honolulu Emergency Order No. 2020-02 (COVID-19 [Novel Coronavirus]) dated March 22, 2020 (as supplemented), continues in full force and effect and is supplemented by this Order.

B. Guidance Bulletin, dated as of April 9, 2020. The Guidance Bulletin dated as of April 9, 2020, as it relates to retail fabric stores selling fabric and sewing supplies is hereby amended consistent with this Order. All other provisions of the Guidance Bulletin remain in force and effect.

C. Duration. This Order shall take effect at 4:30 p.m. on April 13, 2020, and shall continue in force and effect until 4:30 p.m. on Thursday, April 30, 2020, or until it is extended, rescinded, superseded, or amended by a subsequent order, or as otherwise provided under Haw. Rev. Stat. ch. 127A.

D. Enforcement. All law enforcement of the State of Hawai'i and City shall ensure compliance with and enforce these Orders in accordance with Haw. Rev. Stat. § 127A-29 and Mayor's Rules.

E. Promulgation/posting. This Order shall be posted on the City website as soon as practicable in one or more appropriate places, and shall remain posted while in effect.

F. Severability. If any provision of this Order or its application to any person or circumstance is held to be invalid, the remainder of the Order, including the application of such part or provision to other persons or circumstances, shall not be affected and shall continue in full force and effect. To this end, the provisions of the Order are severable.
