

MESSAGE FROM MAYOR KIRK CALDWELL

Aloha and welcome to the 6th Annual 2019 Honolulu Liquor Commission Symposium at the Neal S. Blaisdell Center. I extend my warmest aloha to the licensees, management and guests who are in attendance today.

This year's theme, "Business Concepts for the 21st Century," reflects the Commission's commitment to licensees by presenting a forum that offers fresh insights and practical information for the benefit of their businesses, employees and customers.

The success of this annual event is due to the participation of the guest speakers who provide expertise on topics of interest and importance. Mahalo to this year's speakers: Susan Dworak and Sonya Sigler of Real Identities, LLC.; Alan Yamamoto of the Hawaii Occupational Safety and Health Division; Michael Miller of the Hawaii Restaurant Association; and Anna Hirai of the Honolulu Liquor Commission.

On behalf of the City and County of Honolulu, I extend best wishes for a successful and productive conference.
