VISION

Springing from the 'āina, the source that has sustained generations, the Center is Honolulu's iconic gathering place perpetuating community, entertainment and culture.

PRINCIPLES

Connect with the storied place of Kewalo Pūnāwai to reflect the unique environment and cultural traditions of the site.

Sustain the Center through the innovative use of resources.

Curate a diverse collection of programming that engages all communities.

Integrate the Center with the surrounding community as the focal point of a larger district.

Activate and shape spaces focused on creating memorable experiences.
