Open Markets!

The City and County of Honolulu established the People's Open Market Program in 1973 in order to reduce the high prices of fresh food items and help support agriculture in our State.

In this program, farmers and others are provided space by the City to sell their produce to the people at low prices.

Electronic Benefit Transfers (EBT) are accepted at all markets.

City Supervisors are present to monitor market operations. They check for weights, packaging, prices and proper storage to protect customers.

At Open Markets, you will find many kinds of local and ethnic fruits and vegetables that are not ordinarily available in grocery stores.

If you would like more information about the People's Open Market Program, please feel free to contact us. Call the Department of Parks and Recreation at 808-768-9299, visit our website: bit.ly/peoplesmarkets or email: openmarket@honolulu.gov
