Clean Water Honolulu

APRIL IS EARTH MONTH!

#EarthMonthHNL

BE AN EVERYDAY CLEAN WATER HERO

#M2MHI

Come Celebrate!

Saturday, April 18, 2015, 9 a.m. to 2 p.m
Waikīkī Aquarium

The free expo will have water pollution prevention and ocean-related arts and crafts booths.

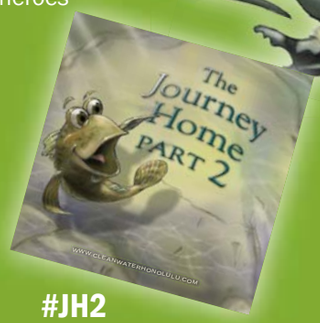
Watch the premiere of The Journey Home puppet show
Take pictures with Apoha • Enjoy a Hawaiian stream mural
Delight in keiki performances • Observe the release of Moi fish

Take home a free native Hawaiian plant
Food available for purchase & be sure to bring your refillable bottles.
Free parking and shuttles will be available at Waikīkī Elementary School

Take a Journey with Apoha!

Follow Apoha, the o'opu, as he struggles to return to his home stream.

Watch as he makes friends and teaches us all how to be clean water heroes along the way! Families can get their own copy of the newly released 'The Journey Home, Part 2' booklet which is filled with fun activities.



#JH2

SHOW TIMES:

May 2-3, 2015	Hawaii Book & Music Festival, Frank Fasi Civic Center Grounds
May 9, 2015	Waianae Public Library, 2:30 p.m.
May 16, 2015	Hawaii State Public Library, 10:30 a.m.
May 21, 2015	Waipahu Public Library, 10:30 a.m.
May 31, 2015	Kaneohe Public Library, 2:00 p.m.

A book display is scheduled to appear at all of Oahu's public libraries. Please visit our website's calendar to see when you can get a copy at your local library.

Join in & Get Involved

During Earth Month Adopt-A-Stream & Adopt-A-Block cleanups are scheduled across Oahu.

Volunteers 12+ years can join us to beautify our streets & streams.

Saturday, April 4, 2015 is our Earth Month Kick Off
& 10th Annual Pearl Harbor Bike Path Clean Up

7:30 a.m. volunteer check-in at
Neal Blaisdell Park or Waipahu Depot Road

Clean ups are scheduled every Saturday during April.
Please visit our website's calendar to find out when you can help out in your neighborhood.

Make a Pledge – Be a Hero!

Too busy to get out and do something? No worries. All you need are a few spare minutes to visit our website (use the QR code below) and pledge to be:

An Organic Gardener
A Mud Preventer
A Street Sweeper
A Yard Hydrator
A Green Engineer
A Story Teller

Once applied, these simple pollution prevention actions are all it takes to be An Everyday Clean Water Hero!

CITY AND COUNTY OF HONOLULU · STATE OF HAWAII

For more information visit:
www.cleanwaterhonolulu.com